

Jon Baker

Head Coach 10-1 Jon

Jon grew up in Maryland and played various sports in High School. He began focusing on volleyball in college. Jon founded the men's volleyball club team at Eckerd College in St Petersburg Fla. In the second year of its existence the team won their regional championship. Jon also played and won many competitive beach and grass doubles tournaments in Florida, Maryland, D.C, Virginia and here in Georgia. He played indoor volleyball out of college for several teams (including one with our very own Kip Buss).

Kids and a significant loss of vertical forced volleyball to the sidelines for many years. Jon started coaching with the Roswell Recreational department and Crossfire Volleyball in 2013. In 2015/16 Jon was introduced into A5 and took over as the head coach of the 10-2 team. Jon assisted the 10-1 team as they traveled to Orlando for AAUs in 2016. In 2016/17 Jon was the head coach of the A5 10-1 team and in 2017/18 he will be back as the 10-1 head coach

Jon lives in Roswell with his wife Pam and four kids (Gavin 18, Jake 15, Sabrina 12 and Duncan 8). They stay busy in the summer on Lake Wedowee boating, boarding and skiing. Jon owns a financial planning company in Sandy Springs and is active coaching other sports in the community (football, LAX and baseball). Jon and his wife Pam are also founders of the biggest St. Patty's Day party in Atlanta, Shamrockin for a Cure, to benefit Cystic Fibrosis. Jon has served on the CF Board since 2003.
